

STUDY ABROAD FOR EXPLORATORY PATHWAYS

INVEST IN YOUR FUTURE

Nearly 29% of KU undergraduate students study abroad prior to graduation. Look into your options early! KU students can study abroad as early as the winter break or second semester of their freshman year.

Studying abroad early in your academic career can provide the experience and exposure necessary to help identify or eliminate major or minor possibilities. It's also a great way to connect to a community of peers early on in your KU experience.

Participation in a semester or academic year study abroad program fulfills KU Core Goal 4.2. Many summer programs meet this requirement as well!

Talk to your UAC advisor. Learn how you can fit study abroad into your four year plan. Whether you choose to go abroad for the winter break or a full semester, study abroad should not delay graduation from KU.

You're already interested in international activities, so why not consider the Global Awareness Program (GAP) certificate? Learn more about this program at gap.ku.edu.

Scholarships & Financial Aid

KU students who qualify for financial aid in the form of Stafford and/or other loans, Pell or SEOG Grants, and scholarships may apply the aid to the cost of a study abroad program.

Out-of-state students pay in-state tuition rates on KU sponsored study abroad programs.

Study abroad scholarship opportunities are available through:

BENEFITS OF STUDY ABROAD

Make connections. Go on a faculty-led program! Get to know your professors and meet KU Alumni and professionals from all over the world.

Add value to the in-classroom experience. Visiting companies and organizations in foreign countries can widen your perspective and add an international context to what you learn in the lecture hall. Gain an experience that gives you an edge in the classroom and on the job.

Earn credit applicable toward your degree. Winter break and summer programs are a great way to advance towards your degree and earn 3 to 6 credit hours.
